

I must vehemently oppose this BPL issue. Recent testing has shown it will completely ruin my enjoyment of Amateur Radio with incessant excessive noise. Even more of a problem with above ground electric transmission lines which in a rural state is all we have. Also, what about me being shut down because of possible transmit interference with my Neighbors broadband connection? This is definitely NOT the answer to providing Broadband access to the masses. Respectfully submitted,
L.F. Emery K1UO